Rev. William John McCaughan, for many years pastor of the Third Pres-

from a window that their condition is considered critical.

The McCaughans were caught on find an exit through the hall were terribly burned.

Their escape through the usual ex-it being cut off by the flames the minister and his wife finally threw themselves from the upper window.

Both struck the pavement with great force and when they were removed to a hospital it was found the skulls of both were fractured.

LIQUOR ISSUE IS UP IN FAR HAWAII

Island People Will Decide The Wet
Or Dry Question For Themselves Today.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Honolulu, July 26.—For the first time in their history the people of Hawaii are voting for or against liquor traffic in the islands. The question has been agitated here for some time.
The agitation began when a bill was introduced into the United States Senate, which was to enact prohibition for the territory. Many persons here who favored prohibition did not like it to come in that way, which was regarded as an infringement of local government, and it was owing to an expression of this feeling that finally congress by a joint resolution submitted the question of prohibition to the people of Hawaii to be voted upon.
The situation is rather complicated and it is rather difficult to predict the results of the special election with any degree of certainty. Recently the prohibition leaders have been conducting a rather active campaign and there has been a good deal of campaigning in behalf of the liquor interests. Many persons who while favoring the principle of prohibition, feel at the same time that it would not be practicable to do better than under the present laws, which are pronounced the best. Liquor laws in existence anywhere.

WRITES LETTER FROM THE WEST

REV. DAVID BEATON GIVES IN-TERESTING ACCOUNT OF TRIP.

DESCRIBES TOWN OF CODY

Congregational Pastor Tells of Beauties of Gateway to National Park
But Neglects Dark Side.

Rev. David Beaton of the Congregational Church, who is at present enjoying his vacation, writes an interesting letter from Cody, Wyo., which will undoubtedly permit not a few of his parishioners to enjoy the trip with him. Rev. Beaton's letter follows:
Cody, Wyo., July 21, 1910.
Mr. Editor of The Gazette:
After a stay of about a week in Chicago and vicinity I started on the final stage of my railroad journey, and got to Cody, the eastern gateway of the Yellowstone Park, on Monday last. Cody is built on the bench of land next the Shoshone River, and looking straight west one sees the noble forms of Cedar and Rattlesnake mountains, through which the river has cut the deep canon which admits us to the park.

Cody stands about 5000 feet above sea level, and is a lively and prosperous town of about 2000 population, with three good churches, a fine school, and a library. I did not count the saloons, but I conclude from a walk-down Sheridan street that they can outrate the churches three or five to one. The Presbyterians are just completing a fine red stone church which is the first good example of architectural taste in the city. The In-ma Hotel has ample and fine accommodations and is the headquarters for business men and tourists on their way to the park. It is under the capable management of Mrs. Decker, a sister of the celebrated Col. Cody of wild west fame, and the founder of the town. It is hard to believe as one looks at the evidences of agricultural progress, domestic prosperity and religious service that this spot was, a few years ago, the home of the buffalo and the savage Indians, and there are even echoes yet of the wild outlaw of the west.

A farmer, on Mr. Ingraham's ranch at Sage Creek, pointing to a range of mountains, said, "That is McClellan's mountain." "Oh," I exclaimed, "the must have been a Scotman." "No," said the farmer, "he was a horse thief." You may be sure I was sorry I had been so previous in my claim of kinship, but bad or good, they seem to have gone everywhere. Sheep are the great product of Wyoming and there is a large and prosperous colony of Scotch sheepmen at Me-teetoe some 30 miles south of Cody on the Grosventor river. I find also that that region has large deposits of coal, and part of the land withdrawn last year is to be measured by a government party now here in Cody under a bright young engineer and four undergraduates.

The principal interest here from the citizens' point of view is the immense irrigation project of the Big Horn basin on which the government is spending about seven million dollars. The dam in the Shoshone canon, the highest in the world, is now completed and the great lake back of it is practically the creation of a primalval which received the drainage of the Aborakia range east of the park. The government road from Cody into the park and over the Sylvan Pass, is built along the side of this lake-reservoir, and is a noble piece of engineering. I cannot describe in detail the various canals and levees and benches which compose the drainage system, but from what I have seen I judge over the country they will supply water to a very large territory around Cody and Gardiner. The climate here is clear, bracing and even exhilarating. People who used to be troubled with rheumatism and catarrh are soon relieved and even entirely cured by the general warmth and dryness of the atmosphere. Like all new countries it has its difficulties, and people looking for a new home and family location should make a careful personal examination of all points. I have spoken only of its attractions. They say there are tigers in the city, but I am not hunting tigers—I am not looking for a postgraduate course in tiger hunting—I am looking to the grand old mountains, to the running streams where the trout gambol, and the springs of the water of life that run among the hills. We enter the park tomorrow. More will follow of the wonders there in which your readers may be interested.

Sincerely,
DAVID BEATON.

Delicately Formed

and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maid-ens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.

FOUGHT A STUBBORN FIRE IN OAT FIELD

Passenger Train Set Fire to Shocked Grain and Neighbors Strive Hard to Gain Control of Flames.

Evansville, July 25.—Five or six acres of oats belonging to Albert North, who lives about four miles east of here on the Janesville road, were destroyed yesterday forenoon by fire which started from a spark from the engine of the nine o'clock passenger.
The oats had been cut and shocked.
Farmers in that vicinity worked hard and prevented the fire from spreading in other fields, but many spent the entire day fighting the flames which kept breaking out. An everything in this vicinity is bone-dry from lack of rain it is almost a miracle that the fire was extinguished without further damage. The building used for storing cement at the lumber yard owner by the Meyers brothers caught fire Saturday evening and it is supposed that this fire also started from an engine, and the fire was discovered soon after the 7:14 passenger had left the depot. The fire company was called and the flames were quenched before any serious damage was done.

COUNCIL HOLDS RECORD SESSION

MEETING LAST NIGHT LASTED UNTIL TWELVE O'CLOCK.

RENEWS LIGHTING CONTRACT

Mayor Appoints W. J. Skelly as Fire and Police Commissioner—Hack Ordinance Amended.

While the regular meeting of the common council last night may be remembered for some time because of the fact that the considerable business of the council was transacted, including the renewal of the contract for street lighting with the Janesville Electric Company and something new in the line of ironed back ordinances, it will probably be notable in that it smashed all records for long distance sessions. Four long hours were consumed in the consideration of a few important questions, a number that were of much less importance and a large gird of routine matters.
Toward the close of the meeting every city dad was on the gul vive to solving a motion to adjourn and even the ever painful street car question, resurrected shortly before midnight, failed to galvanize the aldermen into anything resembling animation.

About one hour and a quarter of the four-hour session was taken up by a committee meeting during which the town residents of Glen St., who appeared to register their protest with reference to proposed improvements on the said street had, while attempting to keep cool in the council chamber, an exceptional chance to witness the lightning like rapidity with which business is transacted.

Lighting Contract.
Although the question of renewing the former contract with the Janesville Electric Company had been before the council since the last meeting and before the members of the lighting committee even longer, Alderman Brown, when the contract came up for acceptance, thought that the council was acting too hastily in a matter of so much importance to the taxpayers and moved that it be laid over for two weeks. Incidentally he remarked that he was representing the taxpayers himself and that he had no time for those officials who were safeguarding the interests of the corporations. His motion to delay executing the contract was lost however, and it was generally conceded that Alderman Dulin's reply for those who voted to execute the instrument immediately and who were accused of being corporation aids, was a master-ly effort.

With reference to the contract itself, which was drawn by the city attorney and carefully examined by the lighting committee, it is practically the same as the former contract with the added provision that in case other party is dissatisfied with the rates charged, they have a right to lay the matter before the state railroad commission, and both parties will be compelled to abide by the decision of the commission.

Skelly Appointed.
Preceding the regular session, Mayor Carlo read Claude J. Hendricks' resignation from the fire and police commission and announced that he had appointed W. J. Skelly to fill the vacancy. The council unanimously confirmed the mayor's appointment.

Licenses Granted.
Because of the legal limit to the number of saloons permissible, it was found impossible to grant licenses to both of the two applicants who presented their requests at the meeting last night. Accordingly, L. E.
Williams was granted permission to dispense intoxicating liquors at 500 W. Milwaukee St., while a motion was carried, regretfully, that the 3500 license of Ole Sorenson, who wished to conduct a booze emporium at 21 N. Academy be returned as no more licenses could be granted. A petition from Charles Herrmann for permission to transfer the liquor license granted to himself and Norman Troloff to the Crook Brewing Co., was granted providing the other partner added his signature to the paper.

Hack Ordinance.
Such great interest was shown in passing an ordinance amending the ordinance regulating hack and bus lines that the penalty clause was entirely forgotten until after the rules had been suspended and the ordinance given its first and second reading.

SEVERE LOSS BY FIRE AT VICTOR UTTERENIER'S FARM

Barn and Silo Destroyed But the House and Other Buildings Were Saved.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Fairfield, July 25.—Fire which broke out in the top of the big hay barn on the farm of Victor Utterenier, destroyed the barn and its contents and a large new silo which was recently constructed.
Hard work by the volunteer firemen from the surrounding country saved the house and other farm buildings but the loss will be severe as there was but four hundred dollars insurance on the property. The fire broke out between nine and ten last evening and the flames were seen for miles. It is thought it was due to the new hay which had been stored in the barn and it spread so rapidly that the horses were saved with difficulty.

FOREST FIRES STILL RAGING.

Montana Officials Report Flames Far From Conquered.

Missoula, Mont., July 25.—Reports from forestry officials and milling companies in this district call the forest fire situation as bad as at any time since the fires started. The high winds have fanned up old fires and carried several new ones over much territory. The fifth fire on Nine Mile creek, fifteen miles west of this city, broke out. Sixty men fought all night and day against a new blaze along the Milwaukee road's right of way.

Donner, Colo., July 25.—Disastrous forest fires are raging in two sections of the state, and forest supervisors report both beyond control. Fire fighters have been sent from Denver and nearby towns.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THAT women do not strike out from the beaten tracks and the over-crowded lines of feminine work and find less crowded occupations and professions for themselves half so much as they ought, is a belief I have long held.

Therefore I have occasionally devoted and shall occasionally devote this column to telling some of "the other things" that women are doing in the world.

I hope to bring a suggestion to some of the women who have their living to earn and to whom some of the beaten paths appeal.

I wish any woman who is doing something out of the ordinary line of work would let me know about it that I may tell of it in this column.

If I had my life to live over again I should take an agricultural course instead of a course in the normal school. Out-of-door work is much more healthy for the majority of women, and compared with school teaching, it is much more remunerative.

That's the conclusion of one woman who broke down as a school teacher and became strong and well as a "wilding gardener."

Being a "wilding gardener" means that she took full charge of gardens, planted them and kept them in shape. On a small farm of her own she raised young plants to sell to her patrons and also had something of a market garden. People who had summer homes in the country and wanted their gardens started before they came out from the city were some of her best patrons.

She hired two Italians as assistants and charged twenty cents an hour for her time and labor.

In seven years she has made a good living and more than half paid for the place she originally hired. She believes there are plenty of opportunities in the suburbs of all large cities for such work.

Another outdoor occupation into which a good many women who are unable to stand the confinement of indoor work have gone is that of mail carrier. It may not be widely known but it is a fact that there are many women who are earning as much as rural mail carriers as they would for school teaching in their respective districts.

Raising Persian kittens was the business into which one girl went to escape being a stenographer.

When she started in with one Persian kitten, bought with the money given her for an Easter egg, her family laughed at her except her father. He said he thought staying at home and raising shabby cats was much better than rushing off to town every morning to sit in an office and bang a typewriter.

Her kittens have sold as high as $5.00 when suitable for show purposes. She seldom sells for less than $2.50. She has had to study the subject deeply, and says it has also taken hard work and much time, but she makes as much as a stenographer, and enjoys the work far better.

Raising cats might at first seem an unusual occupation but it won't when I tell you how one woman in Granby, Mass., makes her living. How would you like to have a thousand or more mice in your back yard. She has all of that, for she raises mice for a living. Mice, mostly, but also guinea pigs and rabbits. The mice go mostly to laboratories, but some are sold for pets. Her breeds sell as high as $2.00, but the laboratory kind bring much less.

The animals eat up immense amounts of vegetables and fodder and require great care. She says she works at least twelve hours a day, but she makes a comfortable living and is much out of doors.

No any of these methods of earning a living appeal to you as preferable to the beaten path?

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

By Rose Terrill.

"Do give me a real method of keeping delicately colored dresses from fading in the washing," said a mother of young girls the other day.

I ran over the list—salt and vinegar and all the simple methods recommended by the housewives for generations. She shook her head and said that none of them came up to the requirements. So I began to hunt for the real thing. I may not have found it, but I have found a simple method which is better than any of the old ones and for which high claims are made.

To one five-gallon pail take three tablespoonfuls of salt and one tablespoonful of turpentine, mix thoroughly, having the water boiling hot and after stirring and thoroughly wetting all parts of the goods, allow it to lie until the water cools. Wring and wring without washing and the color will remain fast for all the subsequent washings of the summer.

The white girl is with us again this summer, and surely nothing is prettier for youth and age as well as all white. Shoes and stockings and parasols and hats will be in white, and the harmony will be perfect. Do not forget that white is an economy as far as wear as in the first, that it is spotless. Gloves that wash should be washed, and frequently. Shoes should be kept clean with the various cleaner fluids or with pumice and water. Nothing is better

Parisian Sage Girls

You never saw a beautiful woman who didn't have beautiful hair. The charm of a beautiful woman lies in her hair.

Many women do not realize the attractions they possess because they do not give proper attention to the hair.

The women of Paris are famed for their beauty not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor, lustre and strength to the hair.

Up to three years ago Parisian Sage could hardly be obtained in America. But now this delightful hair restorer can be had in every town in America. People's Drug Co. sell it in Janesville for 50 cents a large bottle, and they guarantee it to grow beautiful, luxuriant hair; to turn dull, lifeless hair into lustrous hair; to stop falling hair; to stop itching of the scalp. Understand, the money back if it fails. Made only in America by Gironx Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The girl with the Auburn hair is an every body.

than this simple method used by the British soldiers to keep their gloves and belts snow white.

White parasols, of either cotton or linen or silk may all be cleaned in the same way. Spread the parasol and lay it flat with some one of the many brands of soap recommended for use with lukewarm water. Scrub with a soft brush, paying particular attention to the soiled edges of the central part of each section. If there are any spots on them thoroughly before going over the rest of the parasol. When perfectly clean rinse with either a bath spray or with the garden hose and spread in the sun to dry. It will be as fresh as when first bought.

If you are going away for the summer and still have to economize in small things by all means have either a small electric or charcoal iron. A smooth piece of board covered with a piece of old blanket and old cotton will take up a great deal of room, but will be invaluable in pressing out dresses and waists that have been crushed in packing, or in an evening's wear. Lamp garments that have had all the starch taken out by the developer may be sponged with this cold starch and pressed and come out as fresh as ever. It will take a little work, but will pay in a crisp freshness that is the height of girlish charm.

BEAUTIFYING PROCESSES.

BY MARY HUNTER.

One of the methods by which a perfect body is secured is by carrying burdens upon the head up steep places. Another is to pull on weights. Others are to lift strong, ly and surely.

All these exercises develop a serenity of mind at the same time. The flow of blood is stimulated and the whole person is refreshed and exhilarated.

The same processes may well be directed to the development of heart and soul. It is only a difference in selecting the burdens.

A proper adjustment of weights is a part of the lesson, and the value of lifting burdens depends upon the burdens laid upon one, or the ones selected with open eyes.

Lifting the burdens of others is more stimulating to heart and soul than lifting those that are laid upon one and cannot be avoided, but the burdens that come to us in daily life may be lifted with good cheer and helpful vigor and willingness.

Burdens are twice as heavy that are borne sorrowfully and with a groan.

It may not be well to always sing. One may not have a good singing voice, and in this crowded old world the burden we lay upon others may more than out-balance the one we carry, but the song in the heart that makes the mouth sweet and lovable is worth while.

Never talk of the burdens you carry, unless you can by discussing them lighten their weight. That may be allowed, as when one is in a quandary, when to talk means to whine or complain it is better buried deep in the heart. When this kind of an internal takes place, however, do not carry on your face the grief that you feel—for yourself—but teach your facial muscles to fall into serene and pleasant lines.

We are told that our subconscious selves attend to the matter of breathing for us. It is our subconscious self that helps us to walk upright in the body. It is our subconscious self that causes us to keep our balance.

Why then do we not teach our subconscious self to preserve a serene and smiling exterior?

A face that has been in sympathy with the troubles of the owner seldom is sweet. The lines of self-pity are deeply engraved. The lines of discontent are of a different pattern to the tracery etched by patience and cheerfulness.

Train your subconscious self, then, to make you a cheerful under all circumstances. This is not altogether setting or pretence. It may be for a while, until you get adjusted to your new condition, but if you persist you will find that the cheerful exterior is working on your real self.

You will feel cheerful if you act cheerfully. You will soothe your own sorrows if you put yourself aside and smile for the sake of others. You will grow a beautiful soul if you bear burdens for love of others cheerfully. Mark the words—cheerfully.

For after all it is not what you do that makes for a better and higher self, but the way you do it.

Then Alderman Huchholz, who had previously offered an amendment making the proposed ordinance more strict, discovered the omission and proceedings were delayed until the city attorney could appear the penalty. The ordinance as passed, compels anyone not a resident of the city to pay a license fee of $10 a day for each and every conveyance he operates in the city of Janesville. It is fairly probable that Janesville bus drivers will have no competition from Detroit on circus days.

More Amendments.

After what seemed an endless wrangle concerning the bus ordinance, the same procedure was gone through with respect to an order compelling the removal of a two-story frame outbuilding in the rear of block 116-122 on the Corn Exchange. According to Dr. Richards, health officer, this same building is an offense to the health and an affront to the aesthetic sense of the people of Janesville. Alderman Hall introduced a resolution calling upon the owner of the property to tear down the offending structure and connect his building with the sanitary sewer, but the motion was amended by Alderman Huchholz until no one, except possibly the alderman himself, knew what the amended resolution really amounted to. There was another almost interminable discussion but the amended motion was finally passed, and, it is thought, will bring about the desired results. Alderman Huchholz also suggested that the health officer make a tour of all the city's alleys and start a general clean-up but because of the lateness of the hour, got no further than the suggestion.

Delegation Heard.

With John Yahn as spokesman, a delegation of property owners from Glen St. lodged a protest regarding the proposed improvement of the above named street by cement gutters and curbing. The plans call for a curb eight feet from the property line, which makes the street somewhat narrow. According to Mr. Yahn, the residents wish to "live on a street, not an alley," and asked that the distance be made fourteen feet. The plans, however, went through as originally made.

Committee Reports.

The Glen St. improvement was but part of the list given in the report of the street assessment committee regarding the assessment of benefits and damages in the improvement of the following named streets by cement gutters and curbing, the cost of which is borne by the property owners: Pearl St., from Irving St. to Mineral Point Ave.; River, from Iago to Mineral Point Ave.; Mineral Point Ave., from Madison to Chatham; N. Bluff from River to Academy; Glen from N. Bluff to Milton Ave.; Jefferson from Ruger Ave. to Oakland Ave.; Jackson from Milwaukee Ave. to S. Third; Wisconsin from S. Second to S. Third; Center from Pleasant to Monterey; Oakland Ave., from S. Bluff to Wisconsin; Prospect Ave., from Main to Milton Ave.; Peace Court from Main to Cornelia; Fifth Ave., from Prospect Ave. to Glen St.; S. Bluff from S. Second to Clark and East from S. Second to S. Third. The reading of the amounts assessed against the various property owners, although the city clerk did nobly and read so fast that his tongue tripped, took up a considerable portion of the four hours.

Final reports, plans and specifications for improving Mineral Point Ave., Pearl St., River, Race, W. Bluff, Center Ave., Peace Court, Fifth Ave., Glen St., Prospect Ave., S. Bluff St., Jefferson Ave. and Oakland Ave., with cement curbs and gutters, and the final reports, plans and specifications for the improvement of Jackson, East and Wisconsin streets with asphalt macadam were accepted.

Routine Business.

The report of the superintendent of the stone crusher for the four weeks ending July 23, showing the amount of crushed stone drawn from the quarry, was accepted; the problem of sewers in Districts No. 11, 14 and 16 ordered constructed in 1910, were accepted; the report of the street assessment covering the cost of water, gas and sewer service pipes on Jackson, S. Second and S. Third streets installed by the city was accepted; the city engineer was directed to prepare and file in the office of the city clerk a sidewalk grade for S. Cherry St., from Eastern Ave. to Chicago Ave., and for Pleasant St., from Washington to Terrace St., the street commissioner was directed to fill all holes in the macadam pavement on W. Milwaukee St., from Academy to Center St., with crushed stone; to clean the gutter on the north side of Western Ave., between Cherry and S. Academy streets; and to order the owner of lot 3, Block 1 Addition, on Milwaukee Ave., to build a standard cement sidewalk in front of his property.

Orders Drawn.

Orders on the city treasurer were authorized for $500 in favor of the Palmer Memorial Hospital for services rendered to July 1, 1910; for $101.80 in favor of George & Clonahan in full for sewer, water and gas service pipes on Jackson, St. Second and S. Third streets where property owners had failed to install the same; the usual amount of bills were allowed as well as the salary list for July. The applications for licenses and bonds of three junk dealers were also accepted.

The Eternal Question.

Shortly before midnight, while every occupant of the council chamber, aldermen, mayor, reporters and a few lone survivors of the Glen St. delegation had their ears cocked for the opening strokes of the city hall clock denoting the hour of twelve, Alderman Dulin propounded the following question, "Who owns the Janesville Street Railway?" No one seemed to know and everybody seemed too tired to care so Alderman Sheridan's explanation that it did not matter who owned it since the work of renovating the line had already been started, was allowed to bring the subject to a close.

Wood Commissioners.

Sometime during the course of the meeting, Mayor Carle announced that he had appointed the following as wood commissioners: Silas Burdick for the west side of the river; E. Wright in the second ward and Wm. Wright in the third.

MINERS OF ILLINOIS REBEL.

State Officers Oppose Compromise Arranged at Indianapolis.

Springfield, Ill., July 26.—Officials of the Illinois miners' organization declare the men will not accept the terms of the compromise suggested at the Indianapolis conference. According to their view, the proposition of the international executive board will be voted down when submitted, and the strike will continue.

Illinois officers of the union declare the Indianapolis compromise practically robs the miners of victory already won. Their proposition is to hold out for every demand outlined at the Peoria convention, and they will urge the miners to adopt this position and stand by it.

ROOSEVELT TO TALK POLITICS.

Gov. Hadley Says St. Louis Speech Will Be in Midst of Campaign.

St. Louis, July 26.—Theodore Roosevelt's first speech of a political nature since his return to America may be delivered in St. Louis October 11 as the result of correspondence with Governor Hadley of Missouri. The governor received a letter from the former president in which the latter said he would leave the question of whether his speech is to be political or nonpolitical to the governor. Governor Hadley insists that the speech be political and will urge the ex-president to make it so.

Two Are Killed in Wreck.

Niles, O., July 26.—Engineer George Nayer and brakeman W. A. Reddout of an extra east-bound Erie freight train were instantly killed when the freight plunged through a switch one mile west of here.

WOULD OUST OMAHA OFFICERS.

Governor's Order Charges Nonenforcement of New Saloon Law.

Lincoln, Neb., July 26.—Governor Shallenbarger sent Attorney General Thompson a letter directing that official to institute counter proceedings against Chief of Police Donahue and Fire and Police Commissioners Fred Joyce, William J. Hunter and William W. Wapich of Omaha. They are charged with nonenforcement of the eight o'clock closing law. In his letter the governor says that complaint has been filed by Charles J. Karbach, fourth member of the board. Chief Donahue expressed surprise at Karbach's action, declaring the liquor laws had been enforced as much as possible.

DIVINES NEAR DEATH IN TENT.

Chicagoan Among Three Who Escape in St. Louis Storm.

St. Louis, July 26.—Rev. I. G. Martin of Los Angeles, Rev. C. E. Cornell of Chicago and Rev. Howard Eckel of Louisville were in a big tent at the holiness camp meeting at Maplewood, in the Heights of St. Louis, when a storm blew down the tent. They had barely escaped when a big oak tree fell across the corner of the tent, breaking ropes and poles and imprisoning W. Keithley, an aged resident of Sanford, Mo., and Miss Celeste Hannell of Maplewood. They escaped without injury.

HONDURAS REBELS REPULSED.

General Martin Is Killed When He Attacks Government Barracks.

Washington, July 26.—The state department was advised that the revolutionists in Honduras met with severe reverses on July 25, when General Martin of the revolutionary forces was repulsed and killed during an attack on the government barracks. At San Pedro Sula revolutionary movements were suppressed by the government troops, and a number of prisoners were captured. Four revolutionary warships having a large force of troops on board were sighted off the coast.

LUZON BANDIT IS CAPTURED.

Constabulary Captures Filipino Who Evaded Them for Ten Years.

Manila, July 26.—Pope Felipe Balvadoro, the last of the dangerous bandits in Luzon, has been captured by the constabulary in a swamp at Mount Arayat. This famous bandit has evaded the authorities for a decade. He was the head of the fanatical religious and insurrectionary band known as the Iglalutes, and at one time controlled 50,000 men in various provinces.

SENATOR FRYE TO QUIT, RUMOR.

Maine Lawmaker May Retire on Account of Poor Health.

Rockland, Me., July 26.—It was reported here that the Maine legislature which is elected in September may have to choose two senators instead of one. Senator Hale's retirement, announced in the spring, is not questioned. It was said that Senator W. P. Frye, president pro tem of the senate, may retire too. Senator Frye's health is understood to be poor. His term expires in 1913.

MOB DROWNS NEGRO WOMAN.

Crowd of Louisianans Take Negress From Jail and Disappear.

Monroe, La., July 26.—Laura Porter, a negress of the "red light" district, was removed from the city jail here at midnight by a mob of masked men, who carried her in a nude state towards the Ouachita river. She has not been seen since then, and whether she was whipped or "drawn" is not known. She was arrested on a minor charge.

ARE WITH TAFT.

In an editorial mention of the candidacy of E. T. Fairchild for the republican nomination for governor, the Milwaukee Sentinel finds much gratification in announcing that the candidate finds that the voters of the state are with President Taft and his measures. The Sentinel says:

"Senator Fairchild reports a thoroughly enjoyable and encouraging trip through Jefferson, Dane, Iowa and Grant counties. He was most favorably impressed with the thriving and intelligent people of those sections, and it goes without saying that they were favorably impressed with him. The impression of an earnest, sincere, frank and quietly forceful personality naturally acquired by all who come personally in touch with him is his best political asset in this campaign. In such counties, there is a strong leaven of the sober and sensible citizenship which is too afraid to be caught with claptrap, and which takes its politics too seriously to be enfolded and 'follied' by the spectacular methods of the candidate whose political stock in trade is ability to spend any amount of money in putting up a 'hurrah' campaign."

"Senator Fairchild not only wins votes wherever he goes, but inspires that solid sort of confidence and esteem which will go on voluntarily championing and winning votes for him up to primary day. To extend his personal acquaintance throughout the state is distinctly 'good politics' for Mr. Fairchild. Those who meet him get the very correct impression that he will 'make a good governor.' That is the expression one hears from the lips of at least 90 per cent of those he has talked with. It speaks well for him. It is corroborated by his public career."

"It is gratifying, but not at all surprising that, as Mr. Fairchild reports, 'the people generally are with President Taft.' And, in the name of sense and justice, why not, since President Taft is so manifestly with them—not in the mere cheap and blatant lip service of the demagogue, but in the sterling coin, of well considered, genuinely progressive good work."

"The shallow, stupid and dastardly attempt from within his party to discredit him as an inefficient and vacillating failure who could not get anything done, will be smothered with the electric victory of the shipper."

and consumers in enjoining that rate increase coup of the western railroads, and with the total rout of the insurgent-democratic coalition against his measures at the close of the session. No wonder the great bulk of our people are Taft republicans. The work he has done for them speaks for itself, and he needs their support in the work he means to do for them."

THE COW.

The following tribute to man's friend, the cow, comes from the secretary of the National Dairy Union, which has headquarters at St. Paul, Minnesota. The writer hits at a sentiment that perhaps many have hitherto missed in viewing the gentle bovine, yet it is due this friend of man from infancy to old age.

(The dairy cow, if able to express herself in a way which the human family would comprehend, might well lay claim to being man's best friend. She might establish such a claim by calling attention to the fact that from her product and from her carcass man manufactures more of the necessities of life than from any other similar source. She furnishes these necessities to him from infancy until such a time as temporal things are no longer associated with his existence, and she does it ungrudgingly and constantly.

In addition to contributing to man's necessity and his pleasure, the prosperity of an agricultural community is more closely identified with her than with any other of the domestic animals. The horse is quite essential in tilling the soil, but where necessity requires it the sturdy son of the cow can take his place, as he has done in every agricultural section on earth. The horse can only furnish labor and can only return a profit to his owner when conditions are right for returning satisfactory grain crops. It is a well known fact that the dairy cow in the salvation of the farmer in times of poor crops as she is able to convert the rough crops which are never a total failure, into dairy products which always have a cash value.

In addition to this she furnishes skim milk and butter milk for the calves, pigs and poultry and fertility for the soil, without which a farm becomes less valuable each year and the whole country less prosperous. The elimination of the dairy cow would necessitate an almost revolutionary readjustment of man's tastes and requirements. It would mean untold suffering and hardship. Of course she will not be dispensed with, but her value can perhaps best be appreciated by contemplating such a loss.

She will continue to be man's best friend as long as the human family exists and will keep on supplying him with his greatest needs just as she has done through all the ages.

Rock county has a good trio of assembly candidates who, if elected, will make able representatives in the next session of the legislature—Whitett, Fisher and Clauitt. All three good men, capable men and men whose worth and value is appreciated by the voters of their respective districts.

The Janesville ladies who are planning to give an outing to some of the little residents of the crowded tenement districts of Chicago deserve the hearty support, financially, of the business men and kind-hearted citizens of the community. It is a project that touches humanity in general.

July is still keeping up its battering average for heat all right. There seems to be no question but it will land the pennant and make a record that it is to be hoped will not be equaled for many years to come.

Evidently this nation of ours demands a free and unlimited coynage of bath tubs and the attack upon the trust that controls this luxury will have hard work to find a favorable jury working in their interests.

These are the days of Sunday school picnics. Once a year these outings come and the little people look forward to them with as much interest as they do for the Christmas tree in December.

When one contemplates Christmas presents the suggestion is made that straw hats are cheap now and if this kind of weather is to continue they might be most useful.

It is a problem why persons will drive an auto over streets that are torn up. They see the signs but they seem to enjoy the journey just the same.

It never gets too hot for the average politician to argue about the tariff, county option or some burning question.

Talking about safe and sane Fourth of July not have safe and sane target practice in the United States army?

It is to be Bryan or no Bryan in Nebraska from now on.

THE POET PHILOSOPHER

By WALT MASON.

(Copyright, 1909, by George Matthews Adams.)

I know some girls who are strong on Art, and they all have lofty brows; and they paint me SOME OF scenes in the busy THE GIRLS' mart, and pictures of pigeon-cows; and I say: "It's great! While the axes whirl your glory shall never fade!" But my sad heart yearns for the old-time girls who were strong on bread she made! One girl can talk in the ancient Greek, and prattle of abstruse things, and my whiskers curl and my heart grows weak, as I list to the lora she springs. I always hand her a big bouquet, for the knowledge that she's displayed; but ah, for the girl of an older day, who bragg'd of the broad she made! I know a daisied girl who plays the lute and sings till you can't rest; and the golden voice of that female sharp is halm to the savage breast; but off, as she opens her face and shrieks, some song of the highest rank, I think of the girl with the freckled cheeks, who bragg'd of the bread she made!

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

CHEER THEM!

This is an old story, but a good illustration:

Amid the flame and smoke an intrepid fireman is climbing up a ladder to rescue a child. He has almost reached the windows, but is driven back, overcome by heat and smoke. The crowd below is breathless, but as the fireman falters some one says: "Cheer him! Cheer him!" And, moved by the shouts of encouragement, the rescue is made.

That is the heartening thing that all humanity needs—appreciation and cheer.

You listen to a sermon that has cost your pastor time and spiritual expenditure. The words from the pulpit have helped you. Did you think to stay and grasp the preacher's hand and thank him for his message?

Cheer him. The teacher of your child has been uncommonly good. He has been helpful in the times of stress. He has been sympathetic and kind. He has faithfully served your flesh and blood. Have you been thoughtful and kind in your appreciation?

Cheer him. You enjoy your favorite newspaper. You find in its pages news, entertainment, instruction and heart interest. Your editor has spent money and anxious thought on every issue. Did you ever write him a letter of encouragement? Do so. And if you like the "talks" you are reading at this moment tell him.

Cheer him. And your own folks? Are you chary of your words of commendation to wife or mother or child? Know you not a cheering word is like wine to the weary? Your reticence may be thoughtless, but the effect of it is the same as if it were unloving.

Cheer them.

There are in this life signs of omission as cruel as the sins of commission. The word we should have said, but did not say—ah, that is as much to be regretted as the heartless speech!

The word we had not said to say—Who knows how grandly it had rung?

But we did not say it when it should have been uttered. We restrained the kindly expression that flew to the doors of our lips and begged for egress.

And as we follow with slow and halting tread the precious body of the loved and lost it is all too late to say, "Oh, if I only had!" Ah, was for the word that was never said Till the ear is dead to hear. And was for the lack to the fainting head Of the ringing shout of cheer! Ah, was for the lagging feet that tread In the mournful wake of the bier!

For Cleaning Windows. For cleaning windows and mirrors, there are several proprietary articles on the market, but a little soda or kerosene and a little thin starch put over the glass and allowed to dry will give excellent results when rubbed off and polished with newspaper or cloth that leaves no lint. In very cold weather a little alcohol on a cloth is effective.—Harper's Bazar.

HALED INTO COURT FOR BEATING WIFE

Edgerton Man Charged With Brutally Treating Wife, But Family Matters Were Patched Up.

Edgerton, Wis., July 26.—Betty Gunderson yesterday entered complaint against her husband and as a result he was brought up before Judge North charged with unlawful, malicious conduct toward his wife and also for striking her.

The husband pleaded not guilty, but after the plaintiff testified saying that Mr. Gunderson had that day struck her over the back with a chair, grasped her arms, leaving black and blue marks, and also had struck her in the face with his clenched fist and showed a badly swollen and bruised face to her on her statements, the defendant pleaded guilty and said that his wife had continually provoked him.

It appeared to the court that it would be desirable to have an amicable settlement as the plaintiff and defendant were husband and wife with a family of seven children, so with the consent of both parties the case was taken under advisement and adjourned during good behavior and until Aug. 25.

Stoughton Man Fined.

Ole Veem of Stoughton was this morning brought before Judge North for being drunk. He pleaded guilty and when told the fine, including costs, would be $12.00, he said that he had money coming at the Moline Flour company of Stoughton and would like to get permission to go up there and get it, returning on the first train. Permission was not granted and he was told that he could telephone for his money, but he replied that he was ashamed to telephone and say he needed his money to pay a fine for being drunk. He borrowed the cash of a saloonkeeper friend to pay the fine.

NAME COMMITTEE ON CELEBRATION

UNITED SPANISH WAR VETERANS AND INDUSTRIAL CLUB WILL HANDLE AFFAIR.

WILL BEGIN WORK AT ONCE

Means Biggest Celebration That Janesville Has Ever Seen If Present Plans Are Carried Out.

Janesville will celebrate the nation's birthday in Nineteen Eleven in a manner which will be long remembered by the citizens of the lower city and the surrounding country if the present plans are carried out. The first state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans selected Janesville as their next meeting place and it has been decided to hold this three day meeting in July so that the big day will be the Fourth.

Acting on this the camp selected a committee of five composed of Carl Richholz, chairman, John Culberson, Edward Falter, Albert Nott and David Atwood to act with a committee of two from the Industrial and Commercial Club, as a joint committee to take entire charge of the celebration. At the meeting of the Industrial Club yesterday the secretary L. G. De Armand and John Guller were named as the two members from that organization.

This committee of seven will have entire charge of the plans for the encampment and celebration and from the present plans it will mean that the affair will take dimensions that have never been equaled in Janesville. It has been suggested that a sham battle be one of the features of the day and that the entire First Regiment of the Wisconsin National Guard be invited to take part.

It is also suggested that the Milwaukee cavalry troop A and Milwaukee battery also be invited as well as a detail of regular troops from Ft. Sheridan if it is possible to secure them. This would mean that nearly eighteen hundred boys in blue, regulars and state militia would be in the city from two to three days.

A regular camp would have to be established and it would take the form of a regular army maneuvers similar to those held in Chicago this last Fourth. Similar gatherings of militia and regulars have been held at Racine and Fond du Lac at former meetings of the United War Veterans and there is no doubt that the affair as projected can be carried to a successful end.

It is also planned to have General Charles King, U. S. A. in charge of the whole affair and he will be invited by the committee to be their guest during the encampment. The selection of Janesville as the coming meeting place of the Spanish War Veterans meets with the approval of the other camps of the order throughout the state and aside from the soldiers to be present there will be a thousand delegates and visiting members here for the best part of a week.

Secretary De Armand said today: "I see no reason why Janesville cannot have the honor celebration of years. Long before I came to Janesville I heard of its fame of July celebration and their fame will act as an advertising medium that will be hard to beat throughout the country generally. The committee will have a meeting with a day or two and be fully organized and the work of planning for this big gathering will be taken up in detail."

MET TRAGIC DEATH BY ELECTROCUTION

Arthur Wachlin, Whose Funeral Will Be Held Tomorrow, Killed by Current From Electric Wire.

The funeral of Arthur Wachlin of Milwaukee, who met a tragic death by electrocution, while working in the Cream City on Sunday, will be held from the home of his parents at 410 N. Washington street at one o'clock, Rev. Koerner officiating at the service. Mr. Wachlin, who was employed by the Milwaukee Electric Light and Light company, was sent out to fix a broken wire which had been torn loose by the wind, Sunday morning. While he was working with one end of the wire, the other end fell across a trolley wire and he was instantly killed, receiving 550 volts through his body. The accident occurred about half past ten o'clock Sunday morning. The day that Mr. Wachlin was killed was to have been his last with the electric company, as he had passed in his examination and was to go to work on the police force of Milwaukee.

RAWN'S WILL IS FILED FOR PROBATE

DEAD RAIL CHIEF LEAVES ABOUT $1,000,000 TO HIS WIDOW.

HARAHAN JOINS WITH POLICE

President Illinois Central Turns Over Evidence in Craft Case in Which Blain Man is Alleged to Be Involved.

Chicago, July 26.—The will of the late Ira G. Rawn, former president of the Monon Railroad company, was filed for probate here. Mrs. Florence Willis Rawn, the widow, is given all the property, estimated to be worth about $1,000,000, and is made executrix.

Rawn Home is Guarded. Guard has been placed in the Rawn home by Samuel H. Grosely, president of the village board of Winnetka, because he has learned that "material evidence as to facts concerning the death of the railway official have been and may be suppressed."

A letter was sent to Mrs. Rawn notifying her that Marshall Centre of Winnetka would take charge of the premises until after the inquest.

J. T. Harahan, president of the Illinois Central railroad, joined forces with the Chicago police in their efforts to solve the mystery surrounding the tragic death of Mr. Rawn. In a conference with Assistant Chief of Police Herman Schuettler President Harahan turned over all of the evidence in the Illinois Central graft investigation that involved Mr. Rawn. As a result the assistant chief said there is little doubt that the verdict at the inquest to be held Wednesday will be suicide.

Accidental Theory Abandoned. The theory that Rawn shot himself accidentally has been abandoned by the police and it is said it will not even be presented to the coroner's jury.

The motive for suicide has been established, said the assistant chief. "The information that has come to me has been verified by investigations made by detectives from my own office, and it seems conclusive. Coroner Hoffman and myself consulted with the mayor of Winnetka and he agreed with us that it was suicide."

Although President Harahan preserved his attitude of silence so far as the press is concerned, it is known that he told Assistant Chief Schuettler of evidence discovered against Rawn in the graft investigation which, it is said, would not only have ruined him financially but would have put him in serious danger of criminal prosecution.

Harahan Not to Be Called. It is unlikely, according to information gleaned, that President Harahan will be called as a witness at the inquest. It is said that he turned over his information to the police with the understanding that he should not be compelled to testify.

DANCE MUSIC CAUSES STRIKE.

Tantalizing Strains in Near-By Park Contribute to a Walkout.

Cleveland, O., July 26.—Twenty-eight girls employed in the hot rollers, "knockers" and cutters' room at the American Cigar company's plant, driven to desperation by the tantalizing music at a dancing pavilion in a nearby park, went out on strike here.

The girls have been getting $1 per day. They want $1.25. May Calvey, throw off her apron when the music came floating through the window. "Oce, girls," she said, "if the superintendent doesn't raise our wages, let's strike!" "We're on," chorused the others. When the demand was taken to the superintendent he asked for twenty-four hours to consider. The girls quit.

BANK LOOT REACHES $600,000.

Defalcation by Cashier at New York Promises to Become Sensational.

New York, July 26.—The biggest local bank defalcation since the famous Alford case is that of Erwin Wilder, cashier of the New York branch of the Hueson-Chittenden bank, who has stolen more than $600,000 worth of securities.

E. Markowski, now in charge of the New York branch, says he is convinced that there was another person, outside the bank, interested in the thefts and promises sensational disclosures should the clues he holds materialize into facts.

A general alarm calling for Wilder's arrest has been sent out.
